April 2, 2009 08:53 PM - Organizers are preparing for a bigger and better festival this year when they present the 2009 TELUS Mosaic – South Asian Heritage Festival of Mississauga.

The festival will take place June 19-21 in the Civic Square. New to the festival will be midway rides, such as a roller coaster and ferris wheel, and fireworks. U.K. band Swami headlines a concert Saturday night.

Mosaic is a free multi-disciplinary arts festival, which attracted more than 30,000 visitors last year. This is the fourth year it's taking place.

The festival will also include a citizenship oath re-affirmation ceremony, a hit Bollywood film on a large outdoor screen, a miniature paintings show at Art Gallery of Mississauga and an alliance with the North by 16 festival will bring performances by 16 indie bands.
