Mississauga: Local theatre and film celebrity and actress, Anita Majumdar, who is playing a prominent role in the upcoming Salman Rushdie-Deepa Mehta production of ‘Midnight Children’, will be speaking on a panel about her success from stage to screen as a part of the MOSAIC festival taking place in Mississauga (Aug.16-19).

In its seventh year, the festival will screen ‘Kingdom of Women’ by Amna Khaishgi as well as ‘Doubles With Slight Pepper’ by Ian Harnarine that was awarded best Canadian short film of 2011 at TIFF, among several other critically acclaimed movies and documentaries.

Celebrated Canadian filmmaker Richie Mehta of ‘Amal’ fame will be offering a director’s talk and sitting on the jury along with former Hot Docs programmer Karina Rotenstein and Concordia University professor Dr. David Douglas.

There will also be a RELOAD documentary project done by seniors using video equipment that wasn’t around during their salad days.
