

TD Mosaic brings out popular South Asian performers

WhatsOn Aug 14, 2017 by The Mississauga News Mississauga News

The TD Mosaic Festival was another hit in Mississauga.

The annual event was held at Celebration Square on Friday, Aug. 11 and Saturday, Aug. 12 and drew many popular South Asian acts.

Pakistani musician Javed Bashir headlined the Friday night portion in his first ever performance in Mississauga while Kailash Kher was part of the Saturday acts.

TD Mosaic continues to grow in popularity and was named Festival of the Year at this year's MARTY Awards.

Story continues below▼