

The Late Summer 2017 issue of Modern Mississauga Magazine is available now. Click here to read the digital edition! ×

MODERN
mississauga

LOCAL / LIFESTYLE / TECHNOLOGY / FOOD & DRINK / ALL / DIGITAL MAGAZINE

Learn about the 2017 TD Mosaic Festival and Rock The Coliseum

August 08, 2017 / Modern Mississauga

Recent Posts

Modern Motoring - A video review of the 2017 Nissan Rogue

Sep 18, 2017 · Transportation

Nissan's 2017 Rogue SUV combines fashion and functionality and it's easy to see why it's their top selling vehicle. As folks continue to opt for the SUV over sedans in Canada, the Rogue is a strong contender in this hot market.

The South Asian Festival of Mississauga in its 12th year brings its biggest line up ever. The festival theme, "Ekta" (oneness and unity) celebrates the spirit of Canada's 150th by showcasing over 200 artists and performers on two stages at the Celebration Square in the heart of Mississauga. The artists are A list Bollywood, Folk and Popular musicians and singers both international and local. Three of the performers have received highest national arts awards in their countries equivalent to Order of Canada. That includes, Padmashri Award winner, Kaliash Kher from India, TamghaHusneKarkardigi, Bushra Ansari and Jawed Bashir from Pakistan. From the Academy award winning team of musicians from Life of Pi, Anwar Khurshid joins us with a unique selection of Canadian International artists . "Also in the lineup are Marigya,world music band and traditional Folk Chhau Dance, a collaboration between Indian High Commission Ottawa, Festival of India Ottawa and TD Mosaic Festival. Also performing for the first time on this stage is Arzoo Dance from Ottawa, Irudhya Dance and a colorful collection of artists carefully chosen for the festival.

Earlier in 2017, A native Mohawk Artist from Six Nations Reserve near Kingston, David R Maracle was sent to Lahore, Pakistan on the invitation of Beacon House National University and Rafi peer Theatre. A part of "Ekta" initiative, this trip was organized as a special Canada 150 celebration by CCAI and an effort to highlight the Native Canadian art and culture. As a special recognition of Canada 150 years of confederation, CCAI has made special efforts to engage, support and highlight the indigenous art and culture to the local audience. A very special installation and musical/dance performance is organized by the indigenous artists of Canada to mark the occasion. The audience of RTC and Mosaic festival will be

Read More →

The City of Mississauga wants to capture Mississauga's entire story – from our early Indigenous roots to present day newcomer diversity.

The "Story of M" looks for input from residents of Mississauga

Sep 18, 2017 · Arts & Culture

The City of Mississauga is asking residents to share the stories that define what life in Mississauga means to them through an initiative called "Story of M."

Read More →

Craftadian's Etsy Made in Canada returns to Mississauga

Sep 15, 2017 · Arts & Culture

Craftadian's Etsy Made in Canada returns to Mississauga!

Read More →

able to interact with the artists and learn the importance of the artistic and cultural origins of Canada.

Mosaic Festival will host the local talent with "Rising Star" musical competition continuing the tradition of highlighting young and upcoming artists and providing them a platform to enhance their skills. Submission of videos has also been opened for online competition selected by the headlining artists with cash prizes offered to the selected submission. The Festival closing highlight is as always a massive dance performance by ShiamakDawar' own Shiamak Dance Toronto.

Onsite Painting competition, a popular event with both the artists and spectators has been extended to two days, with cash prizes for the first three winners each day. The jury for these competitions comprises of local artists and arts administrators and able members of the audience. This segment is presented with the support of Deserres art supply store.

TD Mosaic Festival reached a new level of recognition, when it received the most prestigious Marty's arts award by the Mississauga Arts Council as the "Festival of the Year 2017".

Trillium Grant Allows CycleLoan to Go Automated Making Cycling a More Accessible Option

Sep 13, 2017 · Health & Wellness

CycleLoan – created by SustainMobility – a non-profit social enterprise committed to fostering sustainable transportation solutions, offers a turnkey, brandable bicycle program whereby clients choose how many bicycles they need on location while maintenance visits and waiver forms are all taken care of as part of a package.

Read More →

Modern Money - Have Your Say on the 2018 City Budget

Sep 12, 2017 · Money

Mississauga's online budget allocator for the 2018 Budget is now available at mississauga.ca/budget.

Read More →

Rock The Coliseum, Indie music Festival completes its 12th year with selection of artists from around Ontario.

Submissions were overseen by the festival team and the members of the board and for the first time, RTC presents indigenous artists on its roster as well.

Founded in 2006, Rock the Coliseum is an annual, FREE music festival in Mississauga that celebrates and supports all genres of independent Canadian music. RTC is a produced by Canadian Community Arts Initiative - a not-for-profit organization based in Ontario. RTC is a celebration of everything positive about the local music community.

Rock the Coliseum will take place on Friday, August 11th and Saturday, August 12th at the Celebration Amphitheatre attached to Mississauga's city hall (300 City Centre Drive). We're simple to reach by public transit, and parking in the area is free!

Modern Motoring - A video review of the 2017 Volvo V90

Sep 12, 2017 · Transportation

We take a thorough look at the 2017 Volvo V90 luxury wagon.

Read More →

The 2017 Arts on the Credit Tour

Sep 11, 2017 · Arts & Culture

Art patrons can connect with local artists once again at the popular Arts on the Credit Fall Tour!

Read More →

Beijing Dance Theater presents Mississauga premiere of The

TD Mosaic Festival RTC Indie Music Festival:11th and 12th Aug 2017, Celebration Square Mississauga Free admission

www.mosaicfest.com

www.Rockthecoliseum.net

Golden Lotus at the Living Arts Centre

Sep 11, 2017 · Arts & Culture

The Beijing Dance Theater presents The Golden Lotus, October 4, 5 and 6 at Mississauga's Living Arts Centre for its second Canadian stop in its first-ever tour outside of Asia.

Read More →

The Dixie Curling Club and the Top 6 Reasons to Come Play in Our House

Sep 8, 2017 · Health & Wellness

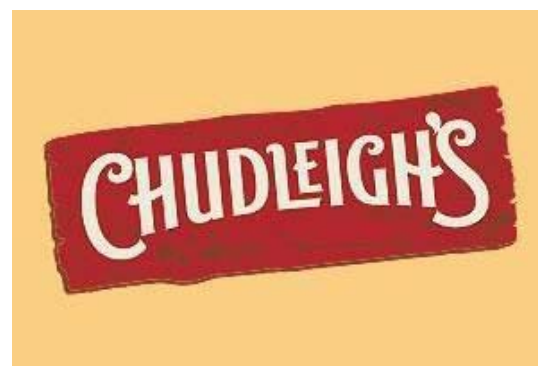

If you are looking for another winter sport that is cost efficient, fun, and very social, this is the sport for you and the Dixie Curling Club in Mississauga is the place to play it.

Read More →

Arts & Culture

Share

DO'S AND DONT'S FOR THE ST/ MODERN ARTIST – AARON DE SOU

Iconic Chudleigh's Entertainment Farm and Bakery Celebrates 50 years

Sep 7, 2017 · Food & Drink

Pioneers in the farming and bakery industries, Chudleigh's launched entertainment farming in Ontario with one of the first u-pick apple orchards in Ontario and, in 1995, invented the world-famous Apple Blossom, a single-serving twist on the classic apple pie.

Read More →

About

Contact Us

© 2017 ALL RIGHTS RESERVED MODERN MISSISSAUGA MEDIA LTD.